

Position: Operations Officer Volunteer for Christmas Providers

Are you a strategic thinker with a passion for operational excellence? Do you want to use your professional skills to bring Christmas joy to over 1,200 children this year?

Christmas Providers is seeking an Operations Officer to join our Board of seasoned, dedicated volunteers. This is a unique leadership opportunity where your expertise in business strategy and technology will directly translate into a more efficient, impactful giving season for families in need.

Why This is an Excellent Opportunity:

- Direct Community Impact: You will be the engine behind an organization that provides critical support and holiday magic to 1,200+ children annually.
- Flexible & Remote: Lead from anywhere in the DFW Metro Area. This role offers the flexibility to balance your professional life while making a massive difference.
- Collaborate with the Best: Join a high-performing team of seasoned volunteers and professional mentors dedicated to the mission.
- Skill Growth & Mentorship: Whether you are looking to sharpen your leadership or master complex data management, we provide comprehensive training to help you progress from basic to advanced levels of non-profit leadership.

The Rhythm of the Role

This position is designed to balance with your life and offers a high-impact, low-hour commitment, requiring approximately 3–12 hours per week ("In-Season"). During the "Off-Season," you'll work with the Project Lead – Word Press Website to prep for the coming year, which can range from a few hours a month to more for a focused project block depending on new requirements.

Core Responsibilities Include:

- Website strategy and specifications
- Manage data integrity & improve processes for Christmas Providers website
- Testing & Training for new development
- Collaborate with our Technical Project Lead and Office Manager
- Active Board Member (4-5 meetings/year)
